Imagine the unimaginable for a second...you pass away suddenly. Everyone in your life is reeling from this loss and there are hundreds of questions that are being asked, the most important of which,

"Who is going to care for the children now?"

Choosing a Guardian for your minor children is one of the most difficult decisions you will have to make as a parent. In this month's meeting, we will tackle the How, What, When and Who of Guardianships. We will discuss:

- How to effectively name a Guardian.
- Things you should consider when making your choice.
- Common misconceptions, and other factors to think about.

Guardianship will always be a tough decision, but we hope that our discussion will provide you with a little insight to help make the process less daunting.
