J.D., Seton Hall University, 2018, cum laude

Darcy Baboulis-Gyscek is an associate in the firm's litigation practice and joined Pashman Stein Walder Hayden following her clerkship for the Honorable Lisa Rose, J.A.D., in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division. Darcy's practice predominantly focuses on representing individuals, businesses and large commercial institutions at both the trial and appellate levels in a variety of complex matters, including fiduciary and corporate governance litigation, contractual and insurance disputes, unfair competition and tortious interference claims. She also has experience handling white-collar defense matters, internal corporate investigations and whistleblower complaints.

Darcy graduated Seton Hall University School of Law, where she earned her J.D. cum laude. She was selected as a member of the Appellate Advocacy Moot Court Board, through which she had significant opportunity to hone her passion for oral and written advocacy, as well as an editor for the Seton Hall Circuit Review. During and prior to law school, Darcy gained significant exposure to New Jersey's judiciary through internships with multiple state and appellate judges. She received her B.A. in Government and Law from Lafayette College.
