

Modern Day School Segregation in New Jersey

RELATED ATTORNEYS

Gary S. Stein

Event
5.15.19

On May 15, Pashman Stein Walder Hayden Special Counsel Justice Gary S. Stein will speak at the New Jersey State Bar Association 2019 Annual Meeting and Convention. Justice Stein will speak on Modern Day School Segregation in New Jersey.

The speakers will discuss the problem of school segregation in New Jersey by race, ethnicity and economic class and why that harms New Jersey's students and undermines the system of public education and threatens New Jersey's future. Further, the speakers will discuss how the State implemented laws which help to create modern day school segregation.

Wednesday, May 15 from 4:30 - 6:30 P.M., Central Meeting Room 1
Borgata Hotel, Casino & Spa
1 Borgata Way
Atlantic City, NJ 08401

Speakers:

- Justice Gary S. Stein (ret.), Special Counsel, Pashman Stein Walder Hayden
- Elise C. Boddie, Esq., Professor of Law & Henry Rutgers Professor, Rutgers Law School
- Carolyn V. Chang, Esq., Immediate Past President & Chair of the Social Justice Committee, Association of Black Women Lawyers of NJ (ABWL)
- Christian Estevez, Executive Vice President, Latino Action Network & CWA Local 1037

For information on how to register, please click here.