

New Brunswick Today Talk: Journalism and Police Accountability

RELATED ATTORNEYS

CJ Griffin

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Media Law

Virtual Event

9.18.20

On September 18, CJ Griffin, Director of the Justice Gary S. Stein Public Interest Center, will participate in a virtual panel discussion on journalism and police accountability. The panel will discuss the role of journalism with experts on the topics of police reform, transparency, and exposing corruption.

Program: New Brunswick Today Talk: Journalism and Police Accountability

Panelists:

CJ Griffin, Pashman Stein Walter Hayden Attorney and Advocate
Rich Rivera, Police Practices Expert
Larry Hamm, People's Organization for Progress

Friday, September 18, 2020 7:00 P.M. – 8:30 P.M.

To register for the webinar, click here.