Raymond M. Brown, partner at Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, will be featured in a panel discussion entitled "Seeking Truth: Sidestepping Misinformation and Disinformation" hosted by Seton Hall University School of Law on Friday, March 12, 2021, at 12 noon. This event will continue the conversation inspired by the Presidential Election and the events of January 6th. Presented for law students, faculty, and administration, this scholarly panel discussion will focus on the challenge of finding good information and avoiding misinformation and disinformation. The panel will explore the impact of media and social media, the duty of private and government actors, and what lawyers and law students can do.
