

Provided an opinion as to whether there was a conflict of interest between a town attorney's purchase of land in the town that had been designated as an area in need of redevelopment and his duties as borough attorney.