
Represented New Jersey Turnpike in construction litigation involving the expansion of the Driscoll Bridge arising out of errors in original steel design and resultant increased costs to the Turnpike. Favorably resolved against contractor and project insurer resulting in several million dollars being paid to the Turnpike.

RELATED ATTORNEYS

Dennis T. Smith

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Construction Law

Public Entity Law
