

Served as local counsel for three financial institutions in a New Jersey qui tam action involving allegations that the banks fraudulently underpriced hundreds of municipal bond offerings.

