
Successfully defended a lawsuit challenging a county improvement authority's award of a waste disposal contract valued at approximately $150 million. The plaintiff, an unsuccessful bidder, challenged the improvement authority's application of the financial responsibility requirements of the bid specifications. Following a bench trial, the court rejected the plaintiff's challenge to the contract award.

RELATED ATTORNEYS

Jason D. Attwood

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Litigation

Public Entity Law
