
Successfully represented a group of limited partners with a minority interest in a commercial real estate company in a dispute with the general partners, who sought to amend the partnership agreement on terms which would have an adverse impact on the limited partners' rights and devalues their shares. The general partners agreed to a consent order that prohibited them from amending the agreement, and after extensive motion practice, we entered mediation and secured a mutually agreeable settlement.

RELATED ATTORNEYS

Janie Byalik

Michael S. Stein

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Business Divorce & Ownership Disputes
