CJ Griffin, Director of the Justice Gary S. Stein Public Interest Center at Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, was quoted in News12 New Jersey article, "Shooting of unarmed motorist by Bloomfield police will be investigated by grand jury."

The investigation was announced following an investigation by News12 feature, "Kane in Your Corner," which uncovered discrepancies in police statements.

"The discrepancy... causes me some serious concern," says C.J. Griffin [Director of the Justice Gary S. Stein Public Interest Center at Pashman Stein Walder Hayden]. "We need accountability, we need answers, we need clarity, we need as much transparency as possible."
