Pashman Stein Walder Hayden is proud to announce that it has been named Law Firm of the Year – Finalist and, for the fourth year in a row, its Appellate practice group has been named Appellate Litigation Department of the Year, by the New Jersey Law Journal as part of its New Jersey Legal Professional Excellence Awards 2021.

In addition, individual attorneys honored with Legal Professional Excellence Awards are Dawn Attwood, who was selected as one of the “Mentors” and Brian Yarzab, who was selected as one of the “Unsung Heroes.”

“Especially because there are so many outstanding law firms in our region, we are humbled by the New Jersey Law Journal’s recognition of the important work we are doing both for our commercial clients and through the Justice Gary S. Stein Public Interest Center,” remarked Michael S. Stein, Managing Partner. “To have achieved this honor, despite the challenges that we all faced throughout the pandemic, is a testament to the dedication of our team and to our unique culture.”

Stein continued, “To be honored with the Law Firm of the Year-Finalist award and, for the fourth year in a row, the Appellate Litigation Department award is immensely gratifying to me and, I have no doubt, a great source of pride to all of the lawyers and staff at our firm. And we couldn’t be more proud of Dawn Attwood for being named one of the ‘Mentors of the Year’ and Brian Yarzab for being named one of the ‘Unsung Heroes.’ Dawn is such an important part of our firm and it is wonderful that she is receiving this recognition from the legal community. And whether sung or unsung, Brian is an outstanding transactional lawyer upon whom clients and the firm have come to rely on.”

The honorees will be recognized, and the Law Firm of the Year winner will be announced, at the New Jersey Law Journal's gala, scheduled for September 23, 2021.
