Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, a leading New Jersey law firm, is pleased to announce that Brian J. Yarzab has joined the firm's Real Estate Group at its growing Hackensack office. Before coming to Pashman Stein, Brian practiced at Price, Meese, Shulman & D'Arminio in Woodcliff Lake.

"I am excited to join this dynamic and robust group which offers an impressive depth of expertise," said Yarzab. "Pashman Stein Walder Hayden offers top-notch legal services and provides the perfect platform for me to continue developing my practice."

Brian received his undergraduate degree in finance from The College of New Jersey and his law degree from Rutgers School of Law, where he served on the editorial board of the Women's Rights Law Reporter. Brian is a former intern to Judge Susan J. Steele in Bergen County and a former law clerk to Judge Jeffrey J. Waldman in Atlantic County.
