

CJ Griffin to be Honored with "Partner in Justice Award" by Partners for Women and Justice

RELATED ATTORNEYS

CJ Griffin

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Justice Gary S. Stein Public Interest Center

News
2.25.21

Pashman Stein Walder Hayden is proud to announce that partner CJ Griffin has been selected to receive the "Partner in Justice Award" by Partners for Women and Justice at their Annual Spring Benefit.

CJ is the Director of the Justice Gary S. Stein Public Interest Center at Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, which is dedicated to a broad range of public interest impact litigation and appellate advocacy that advances social, racial, and economic justice; protects civil liberties and constitutional rights; and promotes an open and transparent government.

The "Partner in Justice Award" honors CJ's dedication to public interest impact litigation and appellate advocacy, including filing a recent friend-of-the-court brief on behalf of Partners for Women and Justice and the New Jersey Coalition Against Sexual Assault in a pivotal Sexual Assault Survivors Protection Act (SASPA) case in front of the New Jersey Supreme Court.

In addition to CJ being honored with the "Partners in Justice Award," Valérie Allusson, M.D., MMM, SFHM, FACP, CHCQM, CPE, Chief Medical Officer, Mountainside Medical Center, and Catherine Weiss, Esq., Chair, Lowenstein Center for the Public Interest and former Chair of the Board of Trustees, Partners for Women and Justice, will each receive the "Partner in Hope Award. "

The Annual Spring Benefit, which will be held virtually on May 5, 2021 from 7:00 pm to 8:00 pm.