Pashman Stein Walder Hayden is proud to announce that Partner CJ Griffin has been named to the National Law Journal's 2019 Litigation Trailblazers List. The National Law Journal's Trailblazer series recognizes professionals who have moved the needle in the legal industry - professionals who are truly Trailblazers and shaped the law.

CJ Griffin has earned a reputation as one of the leading attorneys representing newspapers, nonprofits, and citizens in Open Public Records Act (OPRA) litigations. At Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, CJ has built, from scratch, a powerful public interest practice advocating for government transparency, civil liberties, and social justice. The National Law Journal highlights the trails blazed by CJ's significant police transparency work and her multiple appearances before the New Jersey Supreme Court.
