

Hon. Ronny Jo Siegal Joins Pashman Stein Walder Hayden: Top New Jersey Law Firm Strengthens Family Law Division

RELATED ATTORNEYS

Ronny Jo Siegal

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Family Law

Litigation

News

10.3.17

Pashman Stein Walder Hayden announces that the Honorable Ronny Jo Siegal has recently joined the Firm at their Hackensack, NJ, Headquarters. Judge Siegal served as a Judge of the Superior Court, Chancery Division, Family Part in both Bergen and Passaic Counties for eight years. She joins the Firm's Family Law Department as chair of its Alternative Dispute Resolution practice, concentrating in the mediation and arbitration of matrimonial and family disputes, and complex case management. Judge Siegal is also a parent coordinator.

Judge Siegal has devoted her professional career in both New Jersey and New York Courts to litigation, representing clients in matters involving divorce, child custody, prenuptial agreements, domestic violence and grandparents' rights, white collar defense and appellate practice. She held the position of President of the Association of the Federal Bar for the State of New Jersey and was the Deputy Bureau Chief of the Appeals Bureau for the Bronx District Attorney's Office.

"I was drawn to Pashman Stein Walder Hayden because of its professional excellence and commitment to serving the community," said Judge Siegal, "PSWH is unique and I am proud to be a part of the Firm," she added.

"At PSWH, we have a long tradition of advocacy and support for social justice. Judge Siegal's passion for both makes her an outstanding fit professionally, and is a real win to our corporate culture." Michael Stein, Managing Partner of PSWH.

Judge Siegal resides in Demarest, NJ after many years of living in Alpine, NJ. She has two sons, two wonderful daughters-in-law, and four grandchildren who all reside in Manhattan.