John W. Weiss, Partner and Chair of the Bankruptcy, Restructuring & Creditors' Rights practice group at Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, was featured in The Deal article, "Deal Doctors: Kramer Levin, Robbins Russell Merge." The article discusses, among other stories, Weiss joining Pashman Stein Walder Hayden and chairing its new bankruptcy practice.

Weiss said via email that he "was drawn to Pashman for many reasons, including the firm's outstanding reputation and nationally known litigation practice group, the entrepreneurial mindset of the firm and the firm's commitment to growing and developing a top-notch practice group to service our clients." Weiss added the firm is looking for attorneys that fit the firm's culture and the makeup of the planned practice as it builds out the group.
