PURCHASE, NY, September 23, 2016 – Three months after merging to form Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, the firm announces the opening of its Westchester County office, located in Purchase, New York. Milton Chambers joins the firm of counsel to serve clients in Westchester, Rockland and New York counties, especially in real estate and banking.

“We have worked with Milt for years, having recently expanded our banking into New York,” says Marty Brady of Peapack-Gladstone Bank. “We are so glad to now be partnering with Milt through Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, a firm with strong Bergen roots and similar expansion goals in Westchester County, New York.”

“With our new location and Milt joining the team, we extend our leading litigation services to New York clients as we expand in real estate and banking services,” says Michael Stein, Managing Partner of Pashman Stein Walder Hayden. “This is about bringing a higher level of service to all of our clients.”
