Tracy Julian, Chair of the Family Law Group at Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, was quoted in TAPinto Holmdel & Colts Neck article, “Holmdel’s Tracy Julian and Team Recognized by the Supreme Court, at 2020 NJ Judiciary Pro Bono Attorney Recognition Event.” The article discusses the recognition Tracy Julian, Tim Malone, and Linda Torosian received for their pro bono representation of a natural parent who appealed a contested private adoption.

“My clients often face issues with child custody, parenting time, and similar matters,” said Tracy. “In this particular matter, a mother’s parental rights were terminated. This area of law is a call to service, regardless. When you can see someone through these difficult situations and bring civility, calm and solutions to those problems for them, it’s a very rewarding way to practice law.”
