NJ.Com is reporting that it has received confirmation that the next round of requests for applications for medical marijuana licenses will be released by the Department of Health on June 3. Stay tuned for details...

The last time the state issued an RFA, applicants were afforded only one month from the date of the RFA to submit their applications. Anyone interested in this round should already be working on their applications.

Pashman Stein Walder Hayden is carefully monitoring developments in New Jersey and federally with respect to marijuana legislation and will be available to help its clients navigate the sure-to-be complex regulatory framework of this potential business frontier.
